ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

Important Notes for Tenants

- This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term.
- The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually.
- Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the dwelling, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating and heating water.
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded delivery post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.
6. This agreement has been drawn up after consideration of the Office of Fair Trading's Guidance on Unfair Terms in Tenancy Agreements.
7. If you accept a tenancy deposit under this tenancy, it must be dealt with in accordance with the statutory rules under sections 212-215 of the Housing Act 2004. Take advice if necessary.
8. The Property may be subject to a mortgage granted before the beginning of the Tenancy and the provisions for recovery of possession by a mortgagee in Ground 2 of Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 and Section 7(6) of the Housing Act 1988 apply accordingly. The Landlord's mortgagee shall be entitled to forfeit this lease and gain vacant possession of the Property under Ground 2 of Schedule 2 of the Housing Act1988.

- Letting agents may share details about the performance of obligations under this agreement by the landlord and tenant; past, present and future known addresses of the parties, with each other, with credit and reference providers for referencing purposes and rental decisions; with Utility and Water Companies, local authority Council Tax and Housing Benefit departments, Mortgage lenders, to help prevent dishonesty, for administrative and accounting purposes, or for occasional debt tracing and fraud prevention. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you are entitled, on payment of a fee which will be no greater than that set by statute, to see a copy of personal information held about you and to have it amended if it is shown to be incorrect.

- I/We consent to you disclosing any information relating to me/us, the tenancy, the property(ies) and all relevant matters, including copies of any related documentation, to any individual(s) or body(ies) to whom you are required or deem necessary or desirable to disclose such information. I/We agree that you may pass financial or other information relating to me/us to any such potential transferee, assignee or other third party and such other third party may rely upon the truth and accuracy of any information or representation made by me/us at my/our request to you.

1.26 Not to block or cause any blockage to the drains and pipes, gutters and channels in or about the Property.

1.27 Not to bring into the Property any electrical equipment which does not comply with relevant UK electrical regulations.

1.28 To take all reasonable precautions to prevent damage occurring to any pipes or other installation in the Property that may be caused by frost, provided the pipes and other installations were adequately insulated at the start of the tenancy.

1.29 To take all reasonable precautions to prevent condensation by keeping the Property adequately ventilated and heated.

1.30 The Tenant will not transfer this tenancy or sublet, charge or part with or share possession of the whole or any part of the Property, take in lodgers, or share occupation of the Property with any person, other than up to 1 guests for a maximum stay of 2 consecutive nights. If you wish to have a guest for more than the stated allowance, please put a request in writing and this will be at the discretion of the Landlord/Managing Agent.

1.31 If any occupier wishes to leave the Property before the end of the Term, the Tenant should follow this procedure.

- The leaver should agree with the other occupiers on a suitable replacement resident, if one can be found.
- The leaver should agree with the remaining occupiers what s/he is liable to pay for or contribute towards (including utilities and any damage) and make appropriate payment arrangements.
- If no suitable replacement can be found, the remaining occupiers should make sure the leaver continues to pay their share of the rent and other charges and leaves appropriate contact details and bank information.
- If a suitable replacement is found, the leaver, the remaining occupiers, and the replacement should agree how rent and other charges should be apportioned among them and ask the Landlord/Landlords Agent to prepare a new Tenancy agreement for the remainder of the Term.
- All parties should agree how the leaver's share of the Deposit should be dealt with and the Landlord/Landlords Agent should notify any change in the Tenant's details to the scheme administrator.
- The replacement occupier pays the Landlord a sum equal to the leaver's share of the Deposit, to be held in accordance with the rules of the deposit protection scheme.

Leaving the Property Empty

1.32 To advise the Landlord, by giving reasonable written notice, if the Tenant intends being absent from the Property for more than 14 days and provide actual dates the Property will be unoccupied. For any absence over 28 days the Tenant may agree that the Landlord should have access during the period to keep the Property insured and to take reasonable precautions to mitigate damage.

Condition of the Property

1.33 Unless written comments or amendments are received by the Landlord within 7 days of Tenancy commencement the Tenant acknowledges that the Inventory attached hereto and forming part of this Agreement is a true and accurate record of the Property and the contents, including their condition, at the beginning of the Tenancy.

1.34 Not to damage the Property or make any alteration in or addition to it or the electrical or plumbing system.

1.35 Not to decorate or change the style or colour of the decoration whether it be internal or external, nor to erect any aerial or satellite dish without the express written permission of the Landlord (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

1.36 To keep the interior of the Property and the Contents in the same condition, cleanliness, repair and decoration, as at the start of the Tenancy with allowance for fair wear and tear.

1.37 Not to remove any of the Contents from the Property without the express written permission of the Landlord (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

1.38 To clean the windows of the Property, (where access is possible,) as often as necessary.

1.39 To wash or clean the curtains hanging in such windows, only as agreed with the Landlord inwriting.

1.40 To keep the Garden in the same character; weed free and in good order and to cut the grass at reasonable intervals during the growing season.

1.41 To notify the Landlord as soon as reasonably possible, having regard to the urgency of the matter, of any defect in the Property which comes to the Tenant's attention.

1.42 Where the Property includes Shared Facilities, to take proper care of the Contents and clean as appropriate after use.

1.43 To replace any light bulbs, fluorescent tubes, fuses or batteries, promptly and when necessary.

Waste and Refuse

1.44 To keep the exterior free from rubbish and place all refuse containers etc. in the allocated space for collection on the day for collection.

1.45 To undertake disposal of refuse by placing refuse in the receptacles provided and in particular comply with any local authority recycling policy by using the correct containers provided for that purpose. In the case of any dustbins to ensure that all general rubbish that cannot be recycled is placed and kept inside a plastic bin liner before placing in such dustbin.

Letters and Notices

1.46 To forward any notice, order, proposal or legal proceedings affecting the Property or its boundaries to the Landlord promptly upon receipt of any notice, order, proposal or legal proceedings.

1.47 To forward all correspondence addressed to the Landlord at the Property to the Landlord within a reasonable time.

Access to the Property

1.48 To permit the Landlord or other persons authorized by them: at all reasonable times after giving the Tenant at least twenty-four hours written notice (except in an emergency):

1.49 To enter the Property to examine the state and condition of the Property and Contents and to carry out repairs or maintenance to the Property or Contents and afford them all facilities so to do.

1.49.1 To enter and view the Property with prospective occupiers during the tenancy.

Notice to Repair

1.49.2 If the Landlord gives the Tenant any written notice to remedy a defect, for which the Tenant is responsible, the Tenant shall carry out the repair within one month of the date of the given notice.

Key and Alarm Codes

1.50 The Tenant agrees that the Landlord's agent shall hold a set of keys and that the Tenant shall not install or change the door locks or alarm codes, without the express written permission of the Landlord (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

1.51 Not to have any keys cut for the locks to the Property without the express written permission of the Landlord (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

Tenant's Possessions

1.52 The Tenant is strongly advised to take out insurance with a reputable insurer for the Tenant's possessions as such possessions will not be covered by any insurance effected by the Landlord.

At the End of the Tenancy

1.53 At the end of the Tenancy the Tenant agrees to:

1.54 Give up the Property with vacant possession.

1.54.1 Give up the Property and the Contents in the same state of cleanliness, condition and decoration as it was at the commencement of the Tenancy (reasonable wear and tear excepted) and pay for the repair or replacement of those items damaged or lost during the Tenancy which were the Tenant's responsibility in this Agreement.

1.54.2 Leave the Contents in the respective positions that they occupied at the commencement of the Tenancy.

1.54.3 Return any linen, blankets and towels that may be provided, freshly washed and clean.

1.54.4 Return all keys to the Landlord and pay reasonable costs of having new locks fitted and new keys cut in the event that not all keys are returned to the Landlord.

1.54.5 Any goods or personal effects belonging to the Tenant or members of the Tenant's household which shall not have been removed from the property within 28 days after the expiry or sooner termination of the tenancy shall be deemed to have been abandoned. Provided the Landlord has given written notice to the Tenant, or where the Tenant cannot be found after reasonable steps have been taken to trace the Tenant, the Landlord can dispose of such goods as they think appropriate.

1.55 To allow the Landlord to erect a reasonable number of 'for sale' or 'to let' signs at the Property during the last two months of the Tenancy.

Landlord's Obligations

2. Many of the Landlord's obligations are imposed by law. These implied obligations are binding, even though they may not be expressly referred to in this Agreement. A solicitor, the students' union or a citizens' advice bureau can be asked to advise landlords or tenants about the Landlord's implied obligations. The Landlord hereby agrees with the Tenant as follows:

2.1 The Landlord shall arrange for the Property and Contents (not the Tenant's possessions) to be insured under a comprehensive insurance policy and use all reasonable effort to arrange for any damage caused by an insured risk to be remedied as soon as is practicable, and to refund to the Tenant any Rent paid for any period in which the Property is uninhabitable or inaccessible as a result of such damage, unless the insurers refuse to pay out the policy monies because of anything the Tenant has done or failed to do in breach of the Tenant's Obligations under this Agreement.

2.2 To pay all assessments and outgoings in respect of the Property, which are the responsibility of the Landlord.

2.3 To allow the Tenant to quietly possess and enjoy the Property during the Tenancy without interruption from the Landlord, (not withstanding Clause 1.40 in this Agreement).

2.4 To ensure that gas appliances supplied by the Landlord comply with the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 and that a copy of the Gas Safety Check Certificate will be given to the Tenant at the commencement of the Tenancy.

2.5 To ensure that all the furniture and equipment within the Property supplied by the Landlord complies with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988 as amended in 1993.

2.6 To carry out promptly any repairs which are the Landlord's responsibility.

2.7 Have all gas appliances at the Property checked and certified annually.

2.8 Ensure the electrical wiring at the Property is satisfactory.

2.9 Be licensed if the Property houses 5 or more people from 2 or more households on 3 or more floors (and comply with the conditions of the license and the additional regulations that apply to HMO license holders).

Interest on Rent Arrears

3 The Tenant shall pay interest at the rate of 4% upon any Rent or other monies due under this Agreement which is more than 14 days in arrears in respect of the date from when it became due to the date of payment.

Termination

4 If there is a breach of any of this Agreement by the Tenant the Landlord may serve notice in accordance with Section 8 of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended).

4.1 If the Rent or any part shall be in arrears for at least 21 days after it shall have become due (whether legally demanded or not) or if there shall be a breach of any of this Agreement by the Tenant, the Landlord may re-enter the Property (subject to the Landlord obtaining a Court Order for Possession) and immediately thereon the Tenancy shall terminate without prejudice.

Landlords Right of Termination

4.3 The Landlord is entitled to terminate this Tenancy for these reasons (including by Service of Notice in accordance with Section 8 of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended), as defined above):

4.3.1 Any instalment of rent not received in full within 14 days of day due when the landlord formally demands it, after it has fallen due;

4.3.2 Or if the tenant fails to comply with any of the Tenants Obligations under this agreement;

4.3.3 Or if the Tenant becomes bankrupt;

4.3.4 Or an Interim Receiver of the Property is appointed;

4.3.5 Or if the Tenant (without making prior arrangements in writing with the Landlord) leaves the property vacant or unoccupied for more than 3 weeks.

4.3.6 Termination of this Tenancy Agreement ends the Tenancy but does not release the Tenant from any outstanding obligations.

Effect of Termination

4.4 If the Tenancy is a Fixed Term Tenancy, the Landlord may serve on the Tenant at least 2 months' notice in writing under Section 21(1)(b) of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended) to expire on the last day of the Fixed Term.

4.5 If the Tenancy has become a statutory Periodic Tenancy, it may be terminated by:

4.6 The Landlord serving the Tenant at least two months' notice in writing under Section 21 (4) (a) of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended) and expiring on the last day of a rental period of the Tenancy.

4.6.1 Within any fixed term agreement, the tenant is liable to cover rent until the last day stated on their tenancy agreement. The tenant must give written notice of at least 1 month to terminate their tenancy, should no notice be received, the tenancy will automatically continue and turn into a periodic agreement, until 1 months' notice is given to terminate. Any periodic tenancies must give 1 months' notice to terminate the tenancy.

The Deposit

5.1 If a deposit is taken it will be held and returned under the terms of one of the Tenancy Deposit Schemes detailed below:

The Deposit Protection Service (The DPS)

- This is known as the Custodial scheme. The scheme shall hold the deposit within the terms of the scheme.
- The Landlord's agent shall retain any interest earned on monies properly deducted from the Deposit as specified in Clause 5.3 of this Agreement.

5.2 The Deposit shall be returned to the Tenant (less any deductions properly made) once a checkout has been completed at the end of the Tenancy and upon vacant possession of the Property and return of the keys. The Tenant will be informed of any deductions in writing and deductions will only be taken once the Tenant has accepted the findings found by the Landlords agent. Where an agreement cannot be made between the Tenant and the Landlord's agent, then the Alternative Dispute Resolution service will be used which is provided by The DPS. Please note that using this service will delay the return of the Deposit.

5.3 Monies shall properly be deducted from the Deposit in respect of all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord (including but not limited to the costs and fees of the Landlord's solicitors and other professional advisors) in respect of:

5.3.1 The recovery from the Tenant of any Rent or any other money which is in arrears.

5.3.2 The enforcement of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

5.3.3 Compensation in respect of the Tenant's use and occupation in the event that the Tenant fails to vacate the Property on the due date.

5.3.4 The service of any notice relating to the breach by the Tenant of any of the Tenant's obligations under this Agreement whether Or not the same shall result in court proceedings.

5.3.5 The cost of any Bank or other charges incurred by the Landlord if any cheque written by the Tenant is dishonored or if any standing order payment is withdrawn by the Tenant's bankers.

5.3.6 The cost of repairing, decorating or cleaning the Property or the Contents so they are to the same standard as at the commencement of the Tenancy (reasonable wear and tear excepted).

5.3.7 Any other monies owed by the Tenant to the Landlord.

5.3.8 Compensation for the breach of any terms of this agreement.

5.3.9 If the Deposit shall be insufficient the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord such additional sums as shall be required to cover all costs, charges and expenses properly due.

Notices

6.1 The Landlord gives notice to the Tenant that in accordance with Section 47 and 48(1) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 that Notices (including Notices in proceedings) may be served on the Landlord at the address specified in The Particulars of this Agreement.

6.2 Any Notice served upon the Tenant in accordance with this Agreement or any statute or regulation then the same may be served properly addressed to the Tenant either at the Property or by sending same by first class post to the Property or at the Tenant's last known address and the same shall be deemed to have been properly served and received by the Tenant in the ordinary course of that firstc lass post being delivered.

Consents

7.1 The Landlord confirms that all necessary consents have been obtained to enable the Landlord to enter into this Agreement (whether from Superior Landlord, Lenders, Mortgagees, Insurers, or others).

Data Protection

8.1 The Tenant hereby consents to the Landlord and/Landlord agent processing any information or personal details on or of the Tenant as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998.

8.2 The Tenant agrees that the Landlord may pass on the Tenant's forwarding address and/or other personal information to utility suppliers, local authority, any credit agencies, or reference agencies and for debt collection.

8.3 Attached to and forming part of this Agreement are copies of: (tick as appropriate)

Miscellaneous
